

Paris, October 18, 2021

Dear AVICOM member,

I hereby invite you to the

AVICOM Annual Conference/General Assembly on Wednesday, November 24, 2021, 5 p.m. – circa 6 p.m. (CET) in the Hungarian National Museum (Magyar Nemzeti Múzeum) Budapest, Múzeum krt. 14-16, 1088.

The AVICOM Annual Conference takes place after the MuseumDigit Conference of the National Museum (November 23-24) which hosts the AVICOM f@imp Media Festival 2020 Prize Giving Ceremony at Tuesday, November 23. The MuseumDigit program can be found at <https://museumdigit.hu/en/>

The AVICOM Annual Conference is planned as a hybrid event. So you can also take part via video conference.

For your participation I need your binding registration by returning the completed registration form until November 10, 2021.

Please note that you can only take part in the conference if you have paid your ICOM membership fee for 2021 and are therefore a good standing member.

The foreseen topics of the conference are:

- Annual and financial reports
- Reports on completed and ongoing projects
- Report on the f@imp Media Festival
- Preparation of the ICOM General Conference in Prague 2022
- Election of the new AVICOM Board for 2022-2025
- Various

You can submit your suggestions for topics and applications to me by midnight on November 10th.

Once you have confirmed your participation, you will receive the final program and the online access data for the video conference after November 10th.

I look forward to your active participation and to being able to greet you.

Best regards,

Dr. Michael H. Faber
President
