

Museums facing their environmental and social responsibilities: towards an ethical and sustainable model

ICOM France and its partners ICOM Canada, ICOM Spain, ICOM Lebanon, ICOM-CC, ICTOP, NATHIST, ICOM Arab, ICOM LAC, and the University of Quebec Trois Rivières are launching a new series of debates dedicated to the development of an ethical and sustainable model in museums.

This series of meetings/debates is intended for museum professionals and will include contributions from colleagues who can share innovative experiences in the field of sustainable development. This notion is understood here in its ecological and societal dimensions.

This cycle will take the form of 6 participative sessions on a digital platform from May to November 2023.

Session 6 Emergency planning and reconstruction Wednesday 22nd November 2023 17:30 - 19:00 (CET)

Armed conflicts, natural disasters, acts of terrorism etc., how do museums and cultural institutions deal with risks? How do they demonstrate resilience? How do they anticipate? React? Train? Session illustrated by professionals who have been confronted with these states of emergency.

Speakers :

- Anne-Marie Afeiche, Director General of the General Council of Museums, Lebanon
- Rachel Tabet, collections maintenance specialist, Beirut, Lebanon
- Aparna Tandon, Senior Program Manager, ICCROM (International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property), Italy
- Kate Seymour, Head of Education, Stichting Restauratie Atelier Limburg (SRAL), Maastricht & University of Amsterdam, Netherlands

The session will be moderated by Kate Seymour, ICOM-CC Board member and Sandrine Beaujard-Vallet, ICOM France Board member.
